

ZANZIBAR HOTELS STONETOWN

3 Days / 2 Nights

The coastal island of Zanzibar has a long and fascinating history. Stone Town - the old section of the town - has a colourful history as a centre for slave trading and many historical sites can still be visited. Stonetown is also famous for its winding alleyways full of shops where a variety of local handicrafts, jewellery, and local produce is on offer. There is also a good range of local restaurants and cafe's serving Zanzibari and other African dishes.
