

This four day safari travels to Parc National des Volcans in Rwanda to track the Mountain Gorillas, made famous by Dian Fossey. This short trip is designed for those with limited time and utilises comfortable four star accommodation. We have also included one gorilla permit in this package, but further permits are available.

Day 1: Depart Kigali

You will be met on arrival at the airport and transferred to Kigali. You will be given a briefing on your safari. After lunch, depart for Parc National des Volcans. The journey north goes through terraced hillsides that characterize much of Rwanda's landscape, gradually climbing to the base of the Virunga volcanoes, sometimes with as many as five peaks visible. Three nights VIRUNGA LODGE. (L, D)

Day 2: Parc National des Volcans

Today you will go gorilla trekking in Parc National des Volcans (subject to permit availability at the time of booking). Tracking the gorillas through the mountain forest on the slopes of the Virungas is a magical experience. Once the gorillas are found you will be able to spend up to an hour with them, and hopefully be back at the base in time for a late lunch. Some gorilla families however are more elusive, and tracking can take a full day, especially when it is wet and muddy. (B, L, D)

Day 3: Parc National des Volcans

Today you have the option to go gorilla trekking again (on payment of additional permit at time of booking). You may prefer to visit the golden monkeys, drive to Gisenyi, visit Ros Carr's orphanage and Lake Kivu or climb the Visoke/Muhavura volcanoes. Other attractions include a trek to Dian Fossey's grave. (B, L, D)

Day 4: Return to Kigali

Today you leave for Kigali. Time permitting, you will take a tour of the city including a visit to a market, a pottery project, handicraft shops and the genocide memorial. Your safari finishes with a transfer to the airport. (B)
