Long Lee Manor

Long Lee Manor is located in Shamwari, the malaria free, private game reserve situated only 40 minutes by road from Port Elizabeth. The Manor, originally built in 1910, offers a distinctive Colonial experience. This splendidly restored Edwardian Manor House offers guests refined comfort, congenial service and enticing cuisine in the African bush. Long Lee Manor consists of 15 elegant en-suite rooms and 3 luxury suites. Sumptuously prepared meals are enjoyed in the main dining room, under the Pepper Tree, or around the open blazing fire at the Barn. A river boma offers an outdoor option for meals.

Kwandwe Ecce Lodge

The lodge is set along the steep banks of the Great Fish River in the malaria-free Kwandwe Game Reserve. It is here that you can enjoy bush walks, fishing, canoeing, organised picnics, bush sundowners, rhino-tracking and battlefield & historical tours in and around Grahamstown. There are 6 stylish suites that are spacious and comfortable - in natural tones of burnt aloe, orange, rust and olive hues. Furnishings combine clean contemporary lines, with traditional collectables. This cheerful lodge with a youthful, relaxed vibe is the perfect place for a wildlife experience for the young at heart.

Kwandwe Ecce Lodge

Kwandwe Great Fish River Lodge

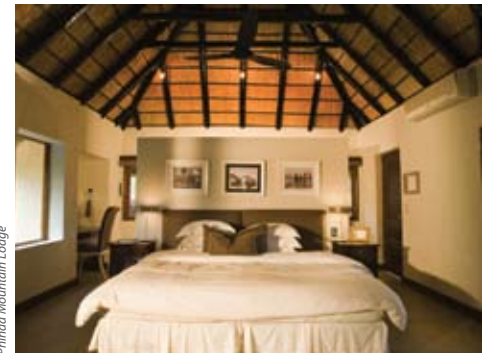

Great Fish River Lodge is set along the lush green banks of the river from which the lodge is named. The nine luxurious suites boast overhead fans and air conditioning. The ensuite bathrooms, complete with bath and indoor and outdoor showers, offer unmatched views over the bushveld. Each suite has a spacious thatched veranda, and private plunge pool with terrace. Delicious Pan African meals are served on private decks, in the candlelit dining room, or in the boma under a magnificent starlit sky.

Phinda Mountain Lodge

With wraparound views of the spectacular Ubombo mountain range these 25 split-level suites crest the mountain's edge, offering breathtaking views of the Reserve below. Recently refurbished, each luxurious suite now boasts a romantic ensuite bathroom, private sitting area, and spacious veranda complete with private plunge pool and outdoor shower. The public area is a magnificent u-shaped building with central al fresco courtyard. Whilst staying at the lodge guests can enjoy day and night game drives, walking safaris, river cruises and canoeing on the Mzinene River

Phinda Vlei Lodge

Fringing the Reserve's unique vlei (wetland) system along the edge of the rare sand forest, this charming lodge comprises six thatched suites decorated in a subtle blend of North and West African styles, with hints of Balinese influences. Each suite, complete with luxurious ensuite bathroom, private plunge pool and game viewing deck, overlooks the grassy vlei where guests can observe herds of grazing antelope, zebra and a dazzling variety of birdlife. Here you can relax in your private plunge pool, or unwind in the comfortable sitting area in front of a warm and inviting open fireplace.
